THE INSTITUTIONAL CARE OF THE INSANE IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

By HENRY M. HURD, WILLIAM F. DREWRY, RICHARD DEWEY,
CHARLES W. PILGRIM, G. ALDER BLUMER,
T. J. W. BURGESS.

Edited by HENRY M. HURD, M. D., Baltimore, Md.

In four volumes, with numerous illustrations. Cloth.
Price $5.00 each. 8vo.

Volume I. Contains general details concerning the early care of the insane and the activities of Dorothea Dix, Brigham, Kirkbride, Ray, Galt, Stribling, and many other philanthropists. It traces the beginning of care and adequate legislation during the nineteenth century and gives many details as to new methods of care and systems of management.

Volume II. Contains an account of the methods of care of the insane and feeble-minded, together with detailed and careful histories of the individual institutions in alphabetical order of states from Alabama to Montana.

Volume III. Contains similar details respecting methods of care and institutions in the rest of the United States, from Montana to Wyoming. Also the study of institutional care in Alaska, the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico.

Volume IV treats of the care of the insane and feeble-minded in Canada by provinces, and gives histories of individual institutions in Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Prince Edward Island, Quebec and Saskatchewan; also in Newfoundland. It contains biographies of two hundred persons who have been engaged in work in behalf of the insane as philanthropists, hospital administrators or alienists; also an index of the four volumes.

The American Journal of Insanity

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INSANITY, the official organ of the American Medico-Psychological Association, is now in its seventy-sixth volume. Its editorial control is in the hands of a committee of the American Medico-Psychological Association, consisting of EDWARD N. BRUSH, M. D., of Baltimore; J. MONTGOMERY MOSHER, M. D., of Albany, N. Y.; CHARLES K. CLARKE, M. D., of Toronto, Ontario; CHARLES MACFIE CAMPBELL, M. D., of Baltimore, and ALBERT M. BARRETT, M. D., of Ann Arbor, Mich., with the collaboration of other alienist physicians at home and abroad.

Communications for the JOURNAL, books for review and exchanges, should be addressed to Dr. EDWARD N. BRUSH, Sheppard and Enoch Pratt Hospital, Station A, Baltimore, Md.

The JOURNAL is published quarterly and the volumes begin with the July number. The subscription price is five dollars for the volume, except to members of the Association, who receive the JOURNAL at a special rate of three dollars. Canadian subscriptions, five dollars and twenty-five cents; foreign subscriptions, five dollars and fifty cents. This includes postage.

Subscriptions, remittances and business communications should be sent to

THE JOHNS HOPKINS PRESS,
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.
